

August 2025 – Village Diary Report

Horam Parish Council welcomed a new Councillor on the 8th July, George Poole was co-opted onto the Council. Prior to his retirement in 2020, George was employed by South East Coast Ambulance Service NHS Trust initially on Patient Transport. For 24 years he was an Advanced Ambulance Technician attending and managing sudden injury or illness and transporting patients to an appropriate medical facility. He also attended several Remembrance services. George was a school governor, for 6 years, at Chiddingly Primary School, serving on various committees, including Chair of the Curriculum & Standards Committee, Lead for Health & Safety and Head Teacher Performance.

The sun shone on Sunday 13th July for another successful Horam Fun Day. The Parish Council had a stand and were promoting their new website <https://horamparishcouncil.gov.uk>. In addition to viewing minutes and agendas of parish council meetings you can report issues related to roads, flooding, parking, and crime directly through the website.
